
Magic Square

1. Explain in general, what is understood by magic square, the target system of an economy. Name also different target values with their quantitative size.